

STATE LEGISLATURE.

House Unseats Blumle and Ferry and Seats Mullin and Harvey.

MANY BILLS PASSED FINALLY.

Both Houses Have Lengthy Sessions and Transact Considerable Business—Good Roads Measure Now Goes to Governor.

Harrisburg April 15.—In the hour of the day given to electric light works, bill failed on final passage.

The senate bill, among the first to be allowed the district attorney in committee, contained a $100,000 alibi, which is identical with the house bill, was introduced for the first time when it was reached and passed finally.

These bills passed finally.

Senate bill requiring justices of the peace to procure and use a seal of office and provide for the certification of official acts.

Senate bill conferring upon cities the right of eminent domain for the removal of canals, booms and other obstructions from streams flowing through or near such cities and providing for the securing and assessment of damages to the owners of such dams etc. and prescribing the method of procedure in regard thereto.

Senate bill to prevent officers and members of boards of managers of institutions receiving state money from selling supplies to such institutions or acting as agent for the sale of the same.

Senate bill providing that the contract for the state printing and binding shall be awarded on the fourth Tuesday of March 1903 and every four years thereafter.

Messrs. Mullin and Harvey who were seated at the afternoon session presented themselves at the bar of the house and the oath of office was administered to them by Judge Weiss of Dauphin county.

A canvass of the Democratic members of the house was held at which resolutions were adopted declaring confidence in Messrs. Blumle and Ferry and condemning the action of the majority of the house in unseating them.

In the Senate

The following bills passed finally. House bill making it a misdemeanor for my master or any other person knowing it to report within 10 hours a case of smallpox, plague or cholera for which it is known to their master, by giving a fine of from $50 to $500 or imprisonment for 10 days to six months or both and also making it compulsory for all entries, through and townships to furnish qualified persons medical necessities of life etc.

House bill providing for the payment of liquor license money to school districts in townships in which the tax is to be made and required by taxpayer pursuant to the act of June 12, 1899, and its supplements.

Authorizing and requiring county commissioners to have the county bridges painted and the bells of the same heightened as often as may be necessary.

Amending the liquor laws by giving the courts wider discretion in penalizing persons convicted of selling in toxicating liquors without a license.

THE PRESS MUZZLE ACT.

Vigorous Protest of the Reputable Press of the State.There is at present a bill before the Legislature at Harrisburg which some disgruntled politician who has a grudge against the newspapers has planned, and the object of which is blackmail pure and simple. The alleged object of the proposed enactment is a stricter law against libel by newspapers. But if it should pass both houses and receive the endorsement of the Governor it would simply open the doors for shyster lawyers and professional blackmailers against honest but frank newspaper men.—Pottsville Miner's Journal.The Satus act is loosely worded and its loose construction would open the way to systematic attack upon the liberty of the press. It would open an opportunity for the shyster lawyers and a host of worthless persons who are ready to be influential, impelled to institute litigation either for the purpose of securing notoriety or blackmail—Altoona Times.The Gracy bill, for that middle-state senator has assistance, is still respond-tory, is not only worse than any law ever proposed in the state, but it propels the laws regulating and controlling the press that the Govt and the Bar have to and convenient and necessary under their plates of government.— Pittsburg Post.It is the most out-and-out measure ever introduced in any legislature for the muzzle and suppression of the press. The same of such a measure would meet a抗拒 to the last when the press existed only through royal permission and when the law battled for its freedom was beginning —Harrisburg Telegraph.It is aimed to title the newspaper of the state, or an effort on the part of certain self-styled leaders to set even with certain journals for absolute silence. The present law affords adequate protection to the citizens of this commonwealth against the attacks of newspapers—both town—In the globe.There are some reckless men in charge of newspapers—bluffing people right and left, and they are only to be entrusted with the use of a free press; but there is no justice in harassing and hamstrung the whole newspaper profession in order to punish these few offenders—Uptown News Standard.The present libel law subjects newspapers to full liability for libelous statements, and the pending bill, has undoubtedly a vindictive purpose in seeking to reach individual persons connected with the newspapers as well as the newspapers themselves.—Pittsburg Gazette.We frankly state that if the members of the Schenck County delegation, whether senators or representatives, vote for the passage of this new libel law no newspaper man in the county can nor will support them for re-election.—Pottsville Republican.Just at the close of the present session of the Legislature a most ridiculous and dangerous libel bill has been introduced, the purpose of which is to muzzle the press of this commonwealth and take away the rights of the people.— Washington Observer.In the present libel laws are not sufficient to protect honest men against unscrupulous newspapers they should be made so but the Satus bill will damage its author and sponsors more than the papers it is aimed at.—Harrisburg Patriot.The rights of newspaper publishers and of the public are safeguarded sufficiently, and it will be a sorry day for the state if they can be curtailed by such a shyster enactment as that proposed by the Satus bill.—Scranton Truth.It is a subject in which the news papers are deeply interested and snap legislation upon a question of such manifest importance to a large interest is not to be tolerated.—Uptown Herald.Laws that unnecessarily encourage litigation are vile. This is what the Satus bill would do. Pass it, and libel suits against newspapers will be multiple tenfold.—Scranton Republican.If the Legislature passes the measure it will put itself on record as opposed to liberty and in favor of gag law. It will be serving all interests if it lets the libel laws alone.—Altoona Gazette.The present libel law of Pennsylvania is beyond question the most just to all parties concerned that the state has ever had.—Lancaster New Era.

LIVING IN PORTO RICO.

Native Can Build a House for a Dollar in the Country.The cost of living in Porto Rico is perhaps less, greater than the average view of success. There is in the other quarter of the globe where modern civilization has obtained a foothold,says a Washington reporter to the Philadelphia Press. It is hard to imagine the American Missionary Association, who is recently returned from an inspection of the island, tellsa story to illustrate the scale of wages and living in the island."I was riding through the interior on horseback, on my way to Ponce," he said, "when I saw ahead of me in the road a native carrying a log on his head. It was a log twelve feet long and must have weighed 200 pounds.He seemed to trot along with it without any trouble. I asked my companion to stop and ask him about it. He did so, and the man said he had cut and "ripped" the log—that is, got itready to split into timber, although it was not loosened enough to fall apart the day before. He had brought it fifteen miles on his head that morning and had three miles further to carry it into Ponce."And how much will you get for it?" I asked my companion."I hope to get 25 cents," replied the man, "but I may get only 12.""But that sum would buy as much as $1.00 would up here," continued the reporter. "So the man was really working for about 75 cents a day. It is estimated that a man can support a family by three days' work a month. Food is practically free. Fruits is to be had for the taking, and the poorer classes practically live upon fruit, and, as for a house, a concert borrowed a dollar from one of our missionaries to put up a house when he wanted to get married, and was plenty."Story About Princess Louise's Fall.

A curious story comes from one who was present at the marriage of the much talked of Princess Louise of Saxe-ony, who was divorced the other day, writes the Vienna correspondent of the Philadelphia Press. By some inexplicable error the box supposed to containher wedding bouquet, sent by a celebrated flower artist in Vienna, was found when opened to contain instead a large cross of white flowers destined for the funeral of a well known Austrian general just dead. The mistake was not discovered until within half anhour of the wedding and the conservation of the superstitious Austrian court may be imagined.

INSPECTING SYSTEM.

Baltimore & Ohio Officials Going Over Local Divisions Today.

MADE STOP IN CONNELLSVILLE.

And Looked Over the Extensive Improvements Under Way at This Point—Right of Way Being Secured for New Route East.

The annual inspection of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad by J. P. Dickson, Engineer of Maintenance of Way, and his corps of assistants, will commence today. All the trackage belonging to the company will be gone over and all defects and needed improvements will be taken note of. The officials will travel on a special train on which will be attached the private car of Mr. Dickson. The officials left Baltimore Tuesday afternoon and left Cumberland this morning. The Pittsburgh & Connellsville division will be inspected today and the party is due to arrive in Pittsburgh about 6 o'clock this evening. Tomorrow the Wheeling division will be inspected. This inspection is as important as any held by the Baltimore & Ohio officials for some time. More & Ohio officials for some time. A stop of several hours was made here to look over the improvements under way.

The Baltimore & Ohio officials are meeting with splendid success in securing rights of way for the proposed new line between Pittsburgh and Baltimore. The company has secured many acres of ground the last few months over which the cut-off will pass. An other important deal has just been closed. It is the purchase of 100 acres from Charles W. Henderson of Cumberland, for $8,000. It extends along the western shore of the Potomac river opposite the present main line tracks and will be used as the cut-off through Pennsylvania connecting the Pittsburgh division at a point near Rockwood with the new route east of the rock. Nearly all the rights of way through Maryland have been acquired and a few short strips are optional. It is expected the line will put under construction during the present year and about three years will be required to complete the project.

Train No. 32 on the Pennsylvania railroad on Tuesday started for records for the new 12-wagon Pittsburgh and Johnstown. The train was hauled by one No. 2400 wider in the same class as the 2200 engines on the Baltimore & Ohio. The run of 24 miles nearly all up hill, was made in 110 minutes with nine heavy cars.

THE PLAY.

Features of the Attractions Billed Here This Week.

The Barlow & Wilson's Minstrels will appear at the Theatre Monday and night, Saturday, April 18. The sun France on Chronicle says of the show:

"There was a critical as well as a refined audience assembled at the California Theatre last evening to witness the performance of Barlow & Wilson's Famous Minstrels. In fact, it was just the class of people who are capable of appreciating and enjoying a high-class entertainment such as that presented by this organization. There may have been some few present disposed to be captious or hypocritical, but they were utterly lost amidst the general enthusiasm, which, in keeping with the opening number of the program, grew and augmented as the entertainment progressed, until it finally engulfed everything and everybody in a perfect tempest of approbation and applause, which was only ended with the final drop of the curtain on the last specialty."

COMMITTEES MET

Tuesday Night to Discuss Financial and Sewage Matters.

A meeting of the finance committee of Town Council was held Tuesday evening to consider the matter of lifting all the certificates of borough indebtedness and placing them to a better advantage and at a lower rate of interest. One of the banks now holding the most of these certificates charges 6 per cent interest, while the others charge only 5 per cent. The intention is to get all the certificates, about $25,000 in all, at 5 per cent.

A meeting was also held by the sewer committee with E. P. H. Harrison, engineer in charge of the Baltimore & Ohio construction work at Connellsville, relative to some sewers which have been affected by the new work over Connells run near the Young river.

Mrs. Weaver Still Missing.

The mystery surrounding the disappearance of Mrs. William Weaver of Mt. Pleasant, who left her home last Monday evening while temporarily insane, has not been cleared.

Elected a Moderator.

At Washington, Pa., the presbytery of the Presbyterian church elected Rev. R. N. Houston of Cross Creek moderator.

Granted an $8 Pension.

Thomas Cleman of Dunbar has been granted a pension of $8 a month.

Council Deadlocked.

The Monongahela Town Council is deadlocked over its organization.

Under-Priced
Table Linen.

Satin Damask, grass bleached—68 inches wide and 50c the yard.

That describes the biggest Linen bargain we've had to tell you about for some time. Linen prices have been advancing for some time.

This would be a bargain at old time prices—a better one now.

Five pieces to choose from and no more after these are gone.

Black Taffeta Silk

Petticoats for $5.

25 of these that are made of best quality Taffeta, with pleated ruffle and dust ruffle—lengths 40, 42 and 44 inches. It's a $5 bargain that you'll appreciate.

Want to look over this small list of bargains. They are not usual, neither is there any exaggeration in calling them bargains. You'll say so too when you see them.

STORE NEWS

LEADERS IN STYLE.

Some Bargain News for you this week, and when this store tells bargains you know there's no exaggeration. Several different reasons to this undervalued article.
Some come to us under price because of our buying in large quantities.
Others we make the price lower because we want to close them out quickly. But the saving is to you whatever the reason, as these cut prices are bargains because they are needed by you now or later on.

Separate Jackets

at $5.00.

Originally they belonged to the ladies' suits, but skirts have been sold from them and we want to close them out.

Figuring them

according to the suit price they ought to bring from $8.00 to $12.00.

Nearly every size, and you know how necessary a light-weight jacket will be in the few weeks to come.

Odd Skirts.

Skirts that are needed for the same reason that the above jackets are old, and marked at the same price,

-$5.00. Of course there are no skirts in this lot that exactly match the jackets, but some come so near that you can buy a suit for $10.00 that's worth double, and in some cases more, too.

Lace Curtains.

No limited quantity, for we have plenty of them, but we are honest in the belief that we can save you from $5.00 up to $20.00 on every pair of Curtains you buy here at $2.00 or $3.00 a pair.

Look over the large variety of lace curtains we have.
